

駐日ベトナム大使が山口大学を訪問

2010年2月5日

2月5日（金）、グエン・フー・ビン駐日ベトナム特命全権大使が吉田キャンパスを訪問されました。最初に、ビン大使は丸本学長を表敬訪問し、今後の山口大学との交流の可能性について話し合いを行い、丸本学長は、ベトナムは農業国であるため農業分野はもちろんのこと、日本の得意分野であるものづくりや教育の分野でも技術支援等に協力したい旨を述べられました。

続いて行われた、丸本学長、各副学長、各研究科長・学部長らとの意見交換会では、ビン大使による人材育成に関する講演があり、ベトナムの発展のためには人材育成が重要であり、博士号取得者を増やすためにも、山口大学の協力が不可欠であると述べられ、留学生の受け入れについて積極的な意見交換が行われました。

最後に、ビン大使とベトナムからの留学生との懇談会も行われ、山口大学とベトナムの今後の交流の発展につながる機会となりました。

Vietnamese Ambassador to Japan Visits Yamaguchi University

February 5, 2010

On the 5th of February, the Vietnamese Ambassador to Japan, Nguyen Phu Binh, visited Yamaguchi University's Yoshida Campus. The Ambassador visited Yamaguchi University President, Dr. Marumoto, to discuss the possibility of future cooperative projects with the University. President Marumoto expressed his interest in collaborating with the Embassy in the field of agriculture as Vietnam is largely an agrarian nation. As Japan is advanced in the fields of industry and education, President Marumoto spoke of his wish to provide technical support in these fields.

Following his visit to the President's office, the Ambassador gave an address at a Meeting attended by the President, Vice-Presidents and Deans and Head of Schools from each Faculty regarding the training and cultivation of today's youth. He expressed how the development and advancement of Vietnam depends on the proper training of today's youth and how Yamaguchi University's cooperation is vital in increasing the number of doctoral recipients. A dynamic discussion concerning the admission of international students into Yamaguchi University followed.

The final part of the Ambassador's visit consisted of a social gathering with the Vietnamese students who are currently enrolled in Yamaguchi University. The visit was yet another chance to strengthen the ties and advance the cooperation between Yamaguchi University and Vietnam.
